IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NCR Executive to Speak at TAWPI Payments Automation Conference

BOSTON – January 16, 2009 – Stephen Reade, vice president of global payments, online, mobile and managed hosting services at NCR Corporation, will present a keynote address at the TAWPI *Payments Automation: From Capture to Clearing* conference in Fort Lauderdale, FL. Reade’s presentation, The Future of Payments: The Convergence of Infrastructure, Channels and the Consumer Experience, is scheduled for the opening session on March 3rd. The Payments Industry is continuing to undergo major changes as the push to virtualization accelerates across all forms of payments and channels. Stephen’s high-level presentation will provide a look at trends in digital transactions and the vast array of new opportunities for new products, payment types and processes.

The conference is scheduled for March 2 – 4, 2009 at the Hyatt Regency Pier Sixty-Six in Fort Lauderdale.

“The TAWPI Payments Automation conference offers industry practitioners insight and best practices for maximizing their organization’s payments capture and clearing, regardless of the vertical market or payment type,” said TAWPI President Frank Moran. “Reade will share how greater customer adoption of online commerce can drive value for organizations. We are fortunate to offer insight from such an industry authority.”

“In today’s challenging economic environment, improving the speed of payment cycles has become an increasingly important factor for customers,” said Reade. “My presentation at TAWPI will take a close look at how financial institutions can enable, leverage and optimize a multi-channel approach, including the quickly growing mobile channel, the online channel, interactive voice response call centers and ATMs – which remain the most secure, multifunction channel component.”
